FROM BERGSON TO LEVINAS:

THE MEANING OF THE HUMAN

A FRANCE-ISRAEL WORKSHOP

The meaning of the human is the golden thread that runs through Emmanuel Levinas philosophy. It is also the point at which Levinas singular philosophical path crossed that of Bergson, Blanchot, Deleuze, Derrida, Jankélévitch, Michel Henry, Lyotard and Sartre.

Is the meaning of the human the theme around which the problems specific to 20th century French philosophy can be articulated? Is it an anchor point or, conversely, a stumbling block, as is evident from the debates it has provoked, which are far from over today? These are the issues that this workshop aims to clarify.
